

Richard Allen Young Adult Council

LESSON # 2 - WHAT IS LEADERSHIP?

Leadership is the process of social influencing, in which a person enlists the aid of others in the accomplishment of a common task. Leadership shows concern for people and their concern for goal achievement.

- Leadership requires organizational vision
- Leadership demands authentic purpose and relationships
- Leadership requires honesty and humility
- Leadership drives the cultural reputation, work ethic, and professional standard of the organization.
- Leadership requires influencing, motivating and coaching
- Christian leadership requires modeling spiritual behavior and living in harmony with spiritual values.

LEADERSHIP COMPETENCIES

- Demonstrates genuine authentic leadership
- Communicates Well; written, spoken, listening, (non-verbal)
- Collaboration (works well with others)
- Organizational Contributor, working for the overall well- being of the total Organization.
- Conceptualizing the potential for what can be.
- Connecting and bridging ideas, thoughts, and people into a collectively generated solution.
- Community Builder; is active in getting out and building relationships.
- Current and up to date, and literate about the issues that matter to the organization.
- Creative and innovative, not bound by the boundaries of current knowledge and experience.
- Copious, Continuous, Infectious Passion.